

Conflicts Research Assistant

Conflicts Department

Email Resume Here to Apply

Qualifications:

- Demonstrated attention to detail.
- Superior writing and analytical skills.
- Excellent communication, organizational, and interpersonal skills.
- Demonstrated ability to work well under pressure, prioritize multiple tasks, and work efficiently both in teams and independently.
- Experience with the use of the internet for serious research.
- General familiarity with corporate structures.
- Ability to learn new software quickly.
- 4-year degree from an accredited college or university, or equivalent combination of education and related experience.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Runs thorough and accurate conflicts reports in connection with the intake of new business or new hires to the Firm. This includes
 - conducting extensive corporate research using multiple software tools and the internet
 - liaising with lawyers and secretaries to obtain a complete set of information about incoming work, such as identifying parties and the nature of the matter
 - crafting appropriate search terms when all corporate and individual names are gathered, running searches in the Firm's proprietary database and filtering results for relevance.
- Composes concise, accurate, and organized reports of research results to lawyers and others in a timely manner.
- Assists in the maintenance of a confidential internal database of information about Firm clients and all related parties to specific matters.
- Provides on-call coverage on weekends and holidays as needed.
- Performs other duties as assigned.

Reports to: Conflicts Counsel and Manager

Status: Non-Exempt

Workplace Type: Up to 100% Remote

Covington & Burling LLP is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate in any aspect of employment, including hiring, salary, promotion, discipline, termination, and benefits, on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity or expression, age, marital status, sexual orientation, family responsibility, disability (including physical handicap), or any other improper criterion.