

Leading Complex International Litigation

Overview

We are serving as international dispute resolution counsel in a complex litigation spanning multiple jurisdictions in Europe, Asia, and The Caribbean.

Problem

- The case involves defending the owner/operators of a vertically integrated aluminum business with operations in China, Romania, and Africa in a multimillion dollar conspiracy claim in the English High Court.
- In addition to the UK dispute, there are related Dutch proceedings, and lawyers engaged in Liechtenstein, the British Virgin Islands, and Curacao.

Covington Team

Craig Pollack
Partner
+44 20 7067 2131
cpollack@cov.com

He has litigated in countries including England, Cyprus, Switzerland, Netherlands, Luxembourg, Germany, Italy, France, Spain, Poland, Czech Republic, Greece, Cayman, BVI, Bahamas, Russia, Ukraine, Kyrgyzstan, China, Singapore, Hong Kong, India, South Africa, Zimbabwe, Ethiopia, Ghana, Israel, Lebanon, and Saudi Arabia, among others.

Strategy

- This case is typical of the complex and multi-faceted international and arbitration litigation work done by Mr. Pollack over 25 years. Clients engage him to set the overall case strategy and to manage teams of lawyers across multiple jurisdictions.

Results

- The matters are ongoing.